

INFORMATION SECURITY POLICY

- ✓ To protect the information of the organization against all kinds of threats that may come from inside or outside, knowingly or unintentionally.
- ✓ To protect the confidentiality of the information against the access of unauthorized people who will try to break the integrity of the information.
- ✓ Providing access to information as required by business processes,
- ✓ To provide the obligations arising from legal regulations, security provisions in contracts and business requirements.
- ✓ To prepare, maintain and test business continuity plans.
- ✓ To raise awareness by providing information security training to all personnel.
- ✓ To establish and maintain information security risk management
- ✓ To report all existing or suspected security vulnerabilities to the information security officer and to ensure that vulnerabilities are investigated by the information security officer.
- ✓ To provide business requirements for information accessibility and information systems.
- ✓ Ensuring the sensitive protection and storage of the confidential information of the relevant parties.
- ✓ To evaluate continuous improvement opportunities and to carry out studies to keep the information security management system up and running.

1 October 2020

Seyhun DÜZYOL
Chairman of the Board